NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on July 30, 2012, at 10:00 a.m. or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, before the Honorable Charles A. Legge (Ret.) at the office of JAMS, Two Embarcadero Center, Suite 1500, San Francisco, California, the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs ("Plaintiffs") will move this Court, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("FRCP"), for entry of an Order:

- (i) granting preliminary approval of the settlement agreement ("Settlement") plaintiffs have executed with defendants (1) Panasonic Corporation (f/k/a Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd.), Panasonic Corporation of North America, and MT Picture Display Co., Ltd., (collectively, "Panasonic");
- (ii) certifying a Settlement Class;
- (iii) appointing Plaintiffs' Interim Lead Counsel as Settlement Class Counsel;
- (iv) approving the manner and form of giving notice of the Settlement to class members as well as the plan of allocation; and
- (v) establishing a timetable for publishing class notice, lodging objections to the terms of the Settlement, if any, and holding a hearing regarding final approval of the Settlement.

The grounds for this motion are that: (a) the Settlement is in the range of possible final approval to justify issuing notice of the Settlement to class members and to schedule final approval proceedings; and (b) that the form and manner of providing notice regarding the matters set forth above satisfy the requirements of FRCP 23 and due process.

This motion is based upon this Notice of Motion and Motion, the following Memorandum of Law, the Declaration of R. Alexander Saveri ("Saveri Declaration") and the Proposed Order Preliminarily Approving Class Action Settlement with Panasonic, the complete files and records in this action, and such other written or oral arguments that may be presented to the Court.

The settlement agreement is attached as Exhibit 1, to the Saveri Declaration. The Long Form Notice is attached to the Saveri Declaration as Exhibit 2. The Summary Notice (Wall Street Journal) is attached to the Saveri Declaration as Exhibit 3.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, Direct Purchaser Class Plaintiffs (“Plaintiffs”) move this court for an order preliminary approving the class settlement reached with Panasonic (“Settling Defendant”).

The Settlement provides for payment to the class in the amount of $17,500,000 for a complete release of all class members’ antitrust claims against Panasonic, as well as Defendant Beijing Matsushita Color CRT Co., Ltd. (“BMCC”). Saveri Decl., Ex. 1. Panasonic has also agreed to cooperate with the Plaintiffs in providing certain information regarding the allegations of the complaint. Id. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 24). In addition, the sales of Panasonic and BMCC remain in the case for the purpose of computing damages against the remaining non-settling Defendants. Saveri Decl. ¶ 19.

The Settlement was achieved only after extensive arms-length negotiations and represents an outstanding recovery for the class. Saveri Decl. ¶ 17.

At this time, this Court is not being asked to determine whether the Settlement and the related plan of allocation are fair, reasonable and adequate. Rather, the question is simply whether the Settlement and the related plan of allocation are sufficiently within the range of possible approval to justify sending and publishing notice to class members and to schedule a final approval hearing.

Plaintiffs hereby seek provisional certification of a settlement class which the Settlement is contingent upon. The settlement class is identical to the settlement classes certified by the Court in as part of its preliminary approval of the settlements with Chunghwa Picture Tube Co., Ltd., (“Chunghwa”) and the Philips defendants, namely, a nationwide class of direct purchasers of CRTs and CRT Finished Products from March 1, 1995 through November 25, 2007 (“Settlement Class”). CRTs are defined to mean Cathode Ray Tubes of any type (e.g. color display tubes, color picture tubes and monochrome display tubes). CRT Finished Products are those products that when finished contain Cathode Ray Tubes – televisions and computer monitors. Id. ¶ 15. The settlement is based on the sales of CRTs and CRT Finished Products. Id. ¶ 16.

Through this motion, plaintiffs seek preliminary approval of the Settlement. The Court should grant preliminary approval of the Settlement because it easily satisfies the standard for preliminary approval – that is, it is within the range of possible approval to justify sending and publishing notice of the Settlement to class members and scheduling final approval proceedings. See In re Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc., 670 F. Supp. 2d 1114, 1125 (E.D. Cal. 2009); Manual for Complex Litigation (Fourth) § 13.14 at 173 (“First, the judge reviews the proposal preliminarily to determine whether it is sufficient to warrant public notice and a hearing. If so, the final decision on approval is made after the hearing.”). Accordingly, plaintiff seeks an order: (i) granting preliminary approval of the Settlement, (ii) certifying a settlement class, (iii) approving the manner and forms of giving notice to the Class, and (iv) establishing a timetable for final approval of the Settlement.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This multidistrict litigation arises from an alleged conspiracy to fix prices of Cathode Ray Tubes (“CRTs”). In November of 2007, the first direct purchaser plaintiff filed a class action complaint on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated alleging a violation of section one of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and section four of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 15. Thereafter, additional actions were filed in other jurisdictions, and the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation transferred all related actions to this Court on February 15, 2008. (Docket No. 122). On May 9, 2008, Saveri & Saveri, Inc. was appointed Interim Lead Class Counsel for the nationwide class of direct purchasers. (Docket No. 282).

On March 16, 2009, the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs filed their Consolidated Amended Complaint (“CAC”) alleging an over-arching horizontal conspiracy among the Defendants and their co-conspirators to fix prices for CRTs and to allocate markets and customers for the sale of CRTs in the United States from March 1, 1995 through November 25, 2007 (the “Class Period”). The Complaint alleges that Plaintiffs and members of the Class are direct purchasers of CRTs and/or CRT Finished Products from defendants and/or their subsidiaries and were injured because they paid more for CRTs and/or CRT Finished Products than they would have absent defendants’

1 illegal conspiracy. (Compl. ¶¶ 213–221). Plaintiffs seek, among other things, treble damages
2 pursuant to Sections 4 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 15 and 22. (Compl., Prayer for Relief).

3 Defendants filed several motions to dismiss the CAC on May 18, 2009. (See Dockets No.
4 463–493). On February 5, 2010 this court issued its rulings denying in part and granting in part 5 Defendants’ motions to dismiss (Report, Recommendations and Tentative Rulings regarding 6 Defendants’ Motions to Dismiss-Docket No. 597). After an appeal by defendants, Judge Conti on 7 March 30, 2010 entered his order approving and adopting Judge Legge’s previous ruling and 8 recommendations regarding Defendants’ Motions to Dismiss. (Docket No. 665). On April 29, 9 2010 the Defendants answered the CAC.

10 Thereafter, in May 2010, certain Defendants propounded interrogatories requesting 11 Plaintiffs to identify what evidence they had about the existence of a conspiracy to fix the prices of 12 CRT Products at the time they filed their complaints. Plaintiffs objected to these interrogatories as,
13 among other things, premature “contention” interrogatories. Defendants moved to compel
14 answers. On November 18, 2010, after a hearing, the Special Master ordered Plaintiffs’ to answer 15 the interrogatories. (Report and Recommendations Regarding Discovery Motions - Docket No.
16 810). On December 8, 2010, the court adopted the Special Master’s Report and Recommendation.
17 (Order Adopting Special Master’s Report, Recommendation, and Tentative Rulings Regarding 18 Discovery Motions - Docket No. 826). On January 31, 2011 Plaintiffs answered Defendants’
19 interrogatories.

20 On March 21, 2011, certain Defendants moved for sanctions pursuant to Federal Rules of 21 Civil Procedure, Rule 11 on the grounds that the allegations of a finished product conspiracy were 22 without foundation and should be stricken from the complaint. (Certain Defendants’ Motion for 23 Sanctions Pursuant to Rule 11 - Docket No. 880). On June 15, 2011, after hearing, the Special
24 Master recommended that the motion be granted and that Plaintiffs’ allegations of a finished
25 products conspiracy be stricken from the complaint. (Special Master Report and Recommendations 26 on Motions Regarding Finished Products - Docket No. 947). The Special Master also 27 recommended that “the issue of the possible impact or effect of the alleged fixing of prices of the 28 CRTs on the prices of Finished Products shall remain in the case, and is a proper subject of 1 discovery.” Id. at p. 14.

2 On June 29, 2011, Defendants moved the Court to adopt the Special Master’s Report and 3 Recommendation. (Motion to Adopt Special Master’s Report and Recommendation Regarding 4 Finished Products - Docket No. 953). Plaintiffs’ filed an objection to the Special Master’s Report
5 and Recommendation. (Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs’ Objection to Report and Recommendation on 6 Motions Regarding Finished Products - Docket No. 957). The Court set the matter for hearing on 7 September 2, 2011. (Docket No. 968).

8 On August 26, 2011, before the hearing on the Special Master’s Report and 9 Recommendations Regarding Finished Products, the parties entered into a stipulation providing,
10 among other things: 1) that the Special Master’s recommended finding that Plaintiffs violated Rule 11 11 be vacated; 2) that certain other aspects of the Special Master’s recommendations be adopted;
12 and 3) that Plaintiffs’ “allegations of the Direct CAC purporting to allege a conspiracy
13 encompassing Finished Products are Stricken from the Direct CAC, provided, however, that the 14 issue of the possible impact or effect of the alleged fixing of prices of CRTs on the prices of 15 Finished Products shall remain in the case.” In addition, Plaintiffs agreed to withdraw “all
16 discovery requests regarding or relating to information in support of the CRT Finished Product
17 Conspiracy claims,” and that “the issue of the purported impact or effect of the alleged fixing of 18 prices of the CRTs on the prices of the Finished Products shall remain in the case and is a proper 19 subject of discovery.” (Stipulation and Order Concerning Pending Motions Re: Finished Products - 20 Docket No. 996).

21 On December 12, 2011 Defendants filed a joint motion for Summary Judgment against 22 Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs who purchased CRT Finished Products. (Docket No. 1013). On 23 February 24, 2012, Plaintiffs filed their Memorandum of Points and Authorities In Opposition to 24 Defendants’ Motion For Partial Summary Judgment and supporting Declaration of R. Alexander 25 Saveri under seal. (Docket No. 1057). That same day, the Direct Action Plaintiffs also filed an 26 opposition to Defendants’ motion. On March 9, 2012, Defendants filed their Reply In Support of 27 Motion For Summary Judgment (Docket No. 1083), and on March 20, 2012, the Court heard
28 argument from all the parties. Thereafter, on May 31, 2012, the Special Master issued his Report

1 and Recommendation regarding Defendants' Joint Motion For Summary Judgment recommending
 2 that the Court grant Defendants' motion for summary judgment and that judgment be entered
 3 against certain plaintiffs that purchased CRT Finished Products from defendants ("R&R"). (Docket
 4 No. 1221).

5 On June 12, 2012, the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs, the Direct Action Plaintiffs, and the 6 Defendants submitted a Stipulation notifying the Court, inter alia, that Plaintiffs' intended to object
 7 to the R&R. (Docket No. 1228). On June 26, 2012, the Court issued an order establishing a
 8 briefing schedule requiring all parties to file their briefs by July 26, 2012 and setting a hearing for 9 August 10, 2012. (Docket No. 1240). On June 28, 2012, the Court vacated the hearing. (Docket
 10 No. 1243).

11 In September of 2008, the first of several stays prohibiting plaintiffs from obtaining merits
 12 discovery was entered by this Court. (Docket Nos. 379, 425, and 590). On June 4, 2008, Plaintiffs'
 13 propounded their First Set of Limited Document Requests. Thereafter, on March 12, 2010, after 14 the partial stay of discovery was lifted, Plaintiffs propounded their Second Set of Document
 15 Requests and First Set of Interrogatories. After extensive meet and confers and several motions to 16 compel, the Court issued its Report Regarding Case Management Conference No. 4 on October 27,
 17 2011 in which it set the middle of December, 2011 as the deadline for the completion of substantial
 18 discovery by all parties. (Docket Nos. 1007, 1008). Plaintiffs have now received over 5 million
 19 pages of documents produced by Defendants.

20 On March 19, 2012, this Court issued its Scheduling Order setting August 30, 2013 as the 21 date for completion of all fact and expert discovery. (Docket No. 1093).

22 On May 3, 2012, the Court preliminarily approved the first two settlements reached in this
 23 case with: (1) Chunghwa Picture Tubes, Ltd. ("CPT"), and (2) Koninklijke Philips Electronics
 24 N.V., Philips Electronics North America Corporation, Philips Electronics Industries (Taiwan), Ltd., 25 and Philips Da Amazonia Industria Electronica Ltda. (collectively, "Philips"). The Court certified
 26 a Settlement Class for the CPT and Philips settlements, appointed Plaintiffs' Interim Lead Counsel
 27 as Settlement Class Counsel, approved the manner of form of providing notice of the settlements to 28

1 class members, and established a timetable publishing class notice and a hearing for final approval.
2 (Docket No. 1179).

3 The Settlement is the third settlement reached in this action.

4 III. THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

5 The Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs have executed the Settlement Agreement with Panasonic
6 and BMCC. As explained in detail below, the Settlement provides for a release of class members'
7 claims in exchange for a substantial cash payment and cooperation with Plaintiffs regarding the 8 price-fixing claims asserted in their Complaint. The Settlement requests certification of a 9 settlement class of direct purchasers of CRTs and/or CRT Finished Products from Defendants and 10 their co-conspirators from March 1, 1995 through November 25, 2007. Panasonic and Plaintiffs 11 have stipulated to a class as it is defined in Plaintiffs' operative complaint. Saveri Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 1.

12 A. The Panasonic Settlement.

13 In exchange for dismissal with prejudice and a release of all claims asserted in the 14 Complaint, Panasonic has agreed to pay $17,500,000 in cash. The funds are to be deposited into a
15 guaranteed escrow account within 30 days of execution of the Settlement Agreement. Id., Ex. 1, ¶ 16 16.

17 In addition, Panasonic has agreed to cooperate with Plaintiffs in the prosecution of this 18 action by providing information relating to the allegations about the multilateral or group CRT
19 competitor meetings alleged in the Complaint, including 1) an attorney proffer by Panasonic's
20 counsel of the facts known to Panasonic regarding multilateral or group CRT competitor meetings;
21 2) the interview and deposition of up to five (5) Panasonic persons with knowledge of multilateral 22 or group CRT competitor meetings; 3) provision of one or more witnesses for deposition, and, if 23 necessary, for trial, to provide information with respect to Panasonic's data regarding sales, 24 pricing, production and costs of its CRT Products, and 4) provision of one or more witnesses to 25 testify regarding the foundation of any Panasonic document or data necessary for summary
26 judgment and/or trial. Id. ¶ 20.

27 In addition, Panasonic's and BMCC's sales remain in the case for purposes of computing
28 damages against the non-settling defendants. Id. ¶ 19.

1 Panasonic has the right to withdraw from the settlement if class members who purchased, in 2 total, more than 85% of Panasonic's sales of CRT Products opt out of the settlement class. Id., ¶ 8.

3 Upon the Settlement becoming final, Plaintiff and Class members will relinquish any 4 claims they have against Panasonic and BMCC based, in whole or in part, on matters alleged or 5 that might have been alleged in this litigation. Saveri Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 13. The release, however,
6 excludes claims for product defects or personal injury. Id. The Settlement becomes final upon: (i)
7 the Court's approval of the Settlement pursuant to Rule 23(e) and the entry of a final judgment of 8 dismissal with prejudice as to Panasonic and BMCC; and (ii) the expiration of the time for appeal
9 or, if an appeal is taken, the affirmance of the judgment with no further possibility of appeal.
10 Saveri Decl., Ex. 1, ¶ 11.

11 Subject to the approval and direction of the Court, the Settlement payment, plus any 12 accrued interest thereon, will be used to: (i) make a distribution to Class members in accordance 13 with a proposed plan of allocation to be approved by the Court (Saveri Decl. Ex. 1, ¶ 20-21); (ii)
14 pay Class Counsel's attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses as may be awarded by the Court (Id., Ex.
15 1, ¶ 22-23.); and (iii) pay all taxes associated with any interest earned on the escrow account. (Id.,
16 ¶ 17(f)). In addition, the Settlement provides that $300,000 may be used to pay for Notice costs
17 and future costs incurred in the administration and distribution of the Settlement payments (Id.).

18 IV. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT

19 A. Class Action Settlement Procedure.

20 A class action may not be dismissed, compromised, or settled without the approval of the 21 Court. Judicial proceedings under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 have led to a defined
22 procedure and specific criteria for class action settlement approval. The Rule 23(e) settlement 23 approval procedure includes three distinct steps:

- 24 1. Preliminary approval of the proposed settlement;
- 25 2. Dissemination of notice of the proposed settlement to all affected class members;
- 26 and
- 27 3. A formal fairness hearing, also called the final approval hearing, at which class
- 28 members may be heard regarding the proposed settlement, and at which counsel

1 may introduce evidence and present argument concerning its fairness, adequacy, and 2 reasonableness.

3 This procedure safeguards class members' due process rights and enables the Court to fulfill its 4 role as the guardian of class interests. See 4 Newberg on Class Actions §§ 11.22, et seq. (4th ed.
5 2002) ("Newberg").

6 By way of this motion, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court take the first steps in 7 the settlement approval process, namely to preliminarily approve the Panasonic Settlement, certify
8 the proposed Settlement Class, appoint Plaintiffs' Interim Lead Counsel as Class Counsel for the 9 settlement class, schedule a final approval hearing, and approve notice to the class.

10 B. Standard for Settlement Approval

11 Rule 23(e) requires court approval of any settlement of claims brought on a class basis.
12 "[T]here is an overriding public interest in settling and quieting litigation . . . particularly . . . in 13 class action suits." Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d 943, 950 (9th Cir. 1976); see also 14 Churchill Village, L.L.C. v. General Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 576 (9th Cir. 2004); In re Pacific Enter.
15 Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir. 1995); Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276
16 (9th Cir. 1992). It is well-recognized that "[v]oluntary out of court settlement of disputes is 'highly 17 favored in the law' and approval of class action settlements will be generally left to the sound
18 discretion of the trial judge." Wellman v. Dickinson, 497 F. Supp. 824, 830 (S.D.N.Y. 1980)
19 (citation omitted). Courts have particularly recognized that compromise is favored for antitrust
20 litigation – which is notoriously difficult and unpredictable. See In re Shopping Carts Antitrust
21 Litig., No. MDL 451-CLB, M-21-29, 1983 U.S. Dist Lexis 11555, at *17–18 (S.D.N.Y. No. 18, 22 1983); West Virginia v. Chas. Pfizer & Co., 314 F. Supp. 710, 743-44 (S.D.N.Y. 1970), aff'd, 440
23 F.2d 1079 (2d Cir. 1971).

24 The purpose of the Court's preliminary evaluation of the proposed settlement is to 25 determine whether it is within "the range of reasonableness," and, thus whether notice to the Class 26 of the terms and conditions of the settlement, and the scheduling of a formal fairness hearing, is 27 worthwhile. Preliminary approval should be granted where "the proposed settlement appears to be 28 the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not

1 improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of the class and falls
 2 within the range of possible approval.” In re NASDAQ Market Makers Antitrust Litig., 176 F.R.D.
 3 99, 102 (S.D.N.Y. 1997). Application of these factors supports an order granting the motion for 4 preliminary approval.

5 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action is a matter of discretion for the trial
 6 court. Churchill Village, 361 F.3d at 575. In exercising that discretion, however, courts recognize 7 that a settlement approval hearing should “not . . . be turned into a trial or rehearsal for trial on the 8 merits.” Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert. denied
 9 sub nom. Byrd v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983). Furthermore, courts must give 10 “proper deference” to the settlement agreement, because “the court’s intrusion upon what is 11 otherwise a private consensual agreement negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be 12 limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product 13 of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement,
 14 taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150
 15 F.3d 1011, 1027 (9th Cir. 1988) (quotations omitted).

16 To grant preliminary approval of the settlement, the Court need only find that it falls within 17 “the range of reasonableness.” Newberg § 11.25. The Manual for Complex Litigation (Fourth 18 (2004) (“Manual”) characterizes the preliminary approval stage as an “initial evaluation” of the 19 fairness of the proposed settlement made by the court on the basis of written submissions and 20 informal presentation from the settling parties. Manual § 21.632. The Manual summarizes the 21 preliminary approval criteria as follows:

22 Fairness calls for a comparative analysis of the treatment of the class 23 members vis-à-vis each other and vis-à-vis similar individuals with similar 24 claims who are not in the class. Reasonableness depends on an analysis of 25 the class allegations and claims and the responsiveness of the settlement to 26 those claims. Adequacy of the settlement involves a comparison of the relief granted to what class members might have obtained without using the class action process.

27 Manual § 21.62. A proposed settlement may be finally approved by the trial court if it is 28 determined to be “fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable.” City of Seattle, 955 F.2d at 1276.

Preliminary approval requires only that the terms of the proposed settlement fall within the “range of possible approval.” See In re Tableware Antitrust Litigation, 484 F. Supp. 2d at 1079; Vasquez, 670 F. Supp. 2d at 1125. It amounts to a determination that the terms of the proposed settlement warrant consideration by members of the class and a full examination at a final approval hearing. Manual § 13.14 at 173. While consideration of the requirements for final approval is unnecessary at this stage, all of the relevant factors weigh in favor of the settlements proposed here. As shown below, the proposed Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Therefore, the Court should allow notice of the settlement to be disseminated to the Class.

C. The Proposed Settlement Is Within The Range Of Reasonableness.

The proposed settlement with Panasonic and BMCC meets the standards for preliminary approval. The settlement is entitled to “an initial presumption of fairness” because it is the result of arm’s length negotiations among experienced counsel. Newberg § 11.4. Because it is provisional, courts grant preliminary approval where the proposed settlement lacks “obvious deficiencies” raising doubts about the fairness of the settlement. See, e.g., In re Vitamins Antitrust Litig., 2001 WL 856292, at *4 (D.D.C. July 25, 2001) (quoting Manual for Complex Litigation (Third) §30.41).

First, the negotiations occurred over a span of several months and involved telephonic and face to face meetings and the review of industry materials and documents. They were contested and conducted in the utmost good faith. Saveri Decl. ¶ 17. Counsel’s judgment that the Settlement is fair and reasonable is entitled to great weight. See Nat’l Rural Telcoms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“‘Great weight’ is accorded to the recommendation of counsel, who are most closely acquainted with the facts of the underlying litigation.”); accord Bellows v. NCO Fin. Sys., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 103525 at *22 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 2, 2008); Rutter & Wilbanks Corp. v. Shell Oil Co., 314 F.3d 1180, 1188 (10th Cir. 2002); Wilkerson v. Martin Marietta Corp., 171 F.R.D. 273, 288-89 (D. Colo. 1997); Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982).

In fact, “the trial judge, absent fraud, collusion, or the like, should be hesitant to substitute its own judgment for that of counsel.” Nat’l Rural Telcoms., 221 F.R.D. at 528 (quoting Cotton v. Hinton, 559 F.2d 1326, 1330 (5th Cir. 1977)). Indeed, there is generally “an initial presumption of 1 fairness when a proposed class settlement, which was negotiated at arms' length by counsel for the 2 class, is presented for court approval." Newberg § 11.41.

3 Second, the consideration for the Settlement is substantial. The Panasonic Settlement
4 provides for a payment of $17,500,000. Saveri Decl. ¶ 18. The Settlement compares favorably to 5 settlements finally approved in other price-fixing cases. See, e.g., Fisher Bros. v. Mueller Brass
6 Co., 630 F. Supp. 493, 499 (E.D. Pa. 1985) (recoveries equal to .1%, .2%, 2%, .3%, .65%, .88%, 7 and 2.4% of defendants' total sales).

8 Third, the settlement calls for Panasonic to cooperate with Plaintiffs. Saveri Decl. ¶ 20.
9 This is a valuable benefit because it will save time, reduce costs, and provide access to information,
10 witnesses, and documents regarding the CRT conspiracy that might otherwise not be available to 11 Plaintiffs. See In re Mid-Atlantic Toyota Antitrust Litig., 564 F. Supp. 1379, 1386 (D. Md. 1983) (a 12 defendant's agreement to cooperate with plaintiffs "is an appropriate factor for a court to consider 13 in approving a settlement"). "The provision of such assistance is a substantial benefit to the classes
14 and strongly militates toward approval of the Settlement Agreement." In re Linerboard Antitrust
15 Litig., 292 F. Supp. 2d 631, 643 (E.D. Pa. 2003). See also In re Mid-Atl. Toyota Antitrust Litig.,
16 564 F. Supp. 1379, 1386 (D. Md. 1983) (concluding that commitment to cooperate is appropriate 17 factor to consider in approving partial settlement); In re Corrugated Container Antitrust Litig., 18 Case No. M.D.L. 310, 1981 WL 2093, at *16 (S.D. Tex. June 4, 1981) ("The cooperation clauses
19 constituted a substantial benefit to the class."). In addition, "[i]n complex litigation with a plaintiff 20 class, 'partial settlements often play a vital role in resolving class actions.'" Agretti v. ANR Freight
21 Sys., Inc., 982 F.2d 242, 247 (7th Cir. 1992) (quoting Manual for Complex Litigation Second, § 22 30.46 (1986)).

23 Finally, the settlement preserves Plaintiffs' right to litigate against the non-settling
24 defendants for the entire amount of Plaintiffs' damages based on joint and several liability. See 25 Corrugated Container, 1981 WL 2093, at *17; Saveri Decl. ¶ 19 (Released claims do not preclude
26 Plaintiffs from pursuing any and all claims against other non-settling defendants for the sales 27 attributable to Panasonic and BMCC).

28 For all the aforementioned reasons, the proposed settlement is within the range of final

1 approval as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

2 V. THE COURT SHOULD PROVISIONALLY CERTIFY THE PANASONIC
 3 SETTLEMENT CLASS

4 The Court should provisionally certify the settlement class contemplated by the Settlement.
 5 (Saveri Decl. Ex 1, ¶ 1). It is well-established that price-fixing actions like this one are appropriate
 6 for class certification and many courts have so held. See, e.g., In re TFT-LCD (Flat Panel)
 7 Antitrust Litig., 267 F.R.D. 291 (N.D. Cal. 2010) (Illston J.) (“LCD”); In re Static Random Access

 13 Litig., Case No. C 98-4886 MMC (N.D. Cal. Mar. 11, 2002) (Order Granting Plaintiffs’ Motion for 14 Class Certification; Vacating Hearing (Chesney, J.)) (“Sorbates”); In re Methionine Antitrust
 15 Litig., Master File No. C-99-3491-CRB (N.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2000 (Order Granting Motion for Class
 16 Certification (Breyer, J.)) (“Methionine”); In Re: Sodium Gluconate Antitrust Litig., Master File
 17 No. C 97-4142 CW (N.D. Cal. Sept. 24, 1998) (Order Granting Class Certification) (Wilken, J.))
 18 (“Sodium Gluconate”).

19 The settlement class stipulated by the parties and contemplated by the settlement agreement
 20 is the following (the “Class”):

21 All persons and entities who, between March 1, 1995 and November 25, 2007,
 22 directly purchased a CRT Product in the United States from any defendant or 23 subsidiary or affiliate thereof, or any co-conspirator. Excluded from the Class are 24 defendants, their parent companies, subsidiaries and affiliates, any co-conspirator,
 25 all governmental entities, and any judges or justices assigned to hear any aspect of 26 this action.

27 CRT Products refers to all forms of Cathode Ray Tubes. It includes CPTs, CDTs
 28 and the finished products that contain them – televisions and monitors.

29 This settlement class is identical to the classes already provisionally certified by 30 the Court in connection with the preliminary approval of the Philips and Chunghwa 31 settlements. (Order Granting Settlement Class Certification And Preliminary Approval of 1 Class Action Settlements with CPT And Philips, (Docket No. 1179) May 3, 2012).

2 A. The Requirements of Rule 23 in the Context of the Settlement Class

3 Rule 23 provides that a court must certify an action as a class action where, as here,
4 plaintiffs satisfy the four prerequisites of Rule 23(a), and one of the three criteria set forth in Rule
5 23(b). Rule 23(a) provides that a class may be certified if: (1) the class is so numerous that joinder
6 of all members is impracticable; (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class; (3) the 7 claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;
8 and (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Fed. R.
9 Civ. P. 23(a).

10 Rule 23(b)(3) provides that “an action may be maintained as a class action” if:

11 the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to class
12 members predominate over any questions affecting only individual 13 members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.

14 The Rule 23(b)(3) “manageability” requirements, however, need not be satisfied in order to 15 certify a class in the settlement context: “Confronted with a request for settlement-only class
16 certification, a district court need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable 17 management problems, . . . for the proposal is that there be no trial.” Amchem Prods., Inc. v.
18 Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997), In re Relafen Antitrust Litig., 231 F.R.D. 52, 68 (D. Mass.
19 2005) (same). As Judge Posner has explained, manageability concerns that might preclude 20 certification of a litigated class may be disregarded with a settlement class “because the settlement
21 might eliminate all the thorny issues that the court would have to resolve if the parties fought out
22 the case.” Carnegie v. Household Internat’l, Inc., 376 F.3d 656, 660 (7th Cir. 2004) (citing 23 Amchem, 521 U.S. at 620); see also In re Initial Public Offering Securities Litig., 226 F.R.D. 186, 24 190, 195 (S.D.N.Y. 2005) (settlement class may be broader than litigated class because settlement 25 resolves manageability/predominance concerns).

26 A Rule 23 determination is procedural and does not concern whether a plaintiffs will 27 ultimately prevail on the substantive merits of their claims. Eisen v. Carlisle and Jacquelin, 417
28 U.S. 156, 177–78 (1974); Tchoboian v. Parking Concepts, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 62122, *5 (N.D.

Cal. July 16, 2009); Gabriella v. Wells Fargo Fin., Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 63118, *7 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 4, 2008).

B. The Requirements of Rule 23(a) Are Satisfied In This Case.

1. The Class Is So Numerous That Joinder of All Members Is Impracticable

The first requirement for maintaining a class action under Rule 23 is that the class be so numerous that joinder of all members would be “impracticable.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). To satisfy this prerequisite, Plaintiff need not allege the precise number or identity of class members. Rubber Chemicals, 232 F.R.D. at 350 (“Plaintiffs do not need to state the exact number of potential class members, nor is a specific number of class members required for numerosity.”); In re Sugar Industry Antitrust Litig., 1976 WL 1374 at *12 (N.D. Cal. 1976) (same). Rather, a finding of numerosity may be supported by common sense assumptions. Rubber Chemicals, 232 F.R.D. at 350; Citric Acid, 1996 WL 655791 at *3.

Courts have not defined the exact number of putative class members that is required for class certification but have generally found that the numerosity requirement is satisfied when class members exceed forty. 6 Newberg On Class Actions §18:4 (4th ed. 2002); see also Oregon Laborers-Employers Health & Welfare Trust Fund v. Philip Morris, Inc., 188 F.R.D. 365, 372–73 (D. Ore. 1998). Geographic dispersal of plaintiffs may also support a finding that joinder is “impracticable.” Rubber Chemicals, 232 F.R.D. at 350-51; LCD, 267 F.R.D. at 300 (given the nature of the LCD market, “common sense dictates that joinder would be impracticable.”).

In this case, the transactional data produced so far indicates that the Class contains hundreds of members dispersed across the country who directly purchased CRT Products from the Settling Defendants and their co-conspirators from March 1, 1995 through November 25, 2007. Saveri Decl. ¶ 22. Thus, the proposed Class readily satisfies the numerosity requirement of Rule 23.

2. This Case Involves Questions of Law and Fact Common to the Class

The second requirement for class certification under Rule 23 is that “there are questions of law or fact common to the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2). The Ninth Circuit has ruled that the commonality requirement is to be “construed permissively.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1019. A court

1 must assess if “the class is united by a common interest in determining whether a defendant’s
2 course of conduct is in its broad outlines actionable.” Blackie v. Barrack, 524 F.2d 891, 902 (9th
3 Cir. 1975). This requirement, however, is easily met: it is satisfied by the existence of a single 4 common issue. In re Flat Glass Antitrust Litig., 191 F.R.D. 472, 478 (W.D. Pa. 1999).

5 The commonality requirement is readily satisfied here. “Courts consistently have held that 6 the very nature of a conspiracy antitrust action compels a finding that common questions of law
7 and fact exist.” Rubber Chemicals, 232 F.R.D. at 351 (quoting In re Sugar Industry, 1976 WL
8 1374 at *13) (internal quotations omitted). Here, there are numerous questions of law and fact
9 common to the Class which are at the heart of this case. These common questions of law and fact 10 include the seminal issue of whether the Defendants engaged in a price-fixing agreement which 11 injured the class when they paid more for CRTs and/or CRT Finished Products than they would 12 have, absent the alleged price-fixing conspiracy. The overarching and unifying common questions 13 of law and fact predominate in this case and include:

- 14 (1) whether Settling Defendants and their Co-Conspirators
15 conspired to raise, fix, stabilize or maintain the prices of CRTs;
- 16 (2) whether the alleged conspiracy violated Section 1 of the 17 Sherman Act;
- 18 (3) the duration and extent of the conspiracy;
- 19 (4) whether Settling Defendants’ conduct caused prices of CRTs 20 and/or CRT Finished Products to be set at artificially high and non-competitive levels; and
- 21 (5) whether Settling Defendants’ conduct injured Plaintiffs and 22 other members of the Class and, if so, the appropriate class-wide measure of damages.

23 These issues constitute a common core of questions focusing on the central issue of the 24 existence and effect of the alleged conspiracy and plainly satisfy the commonality requirement of 25 Rule 23(a)(2). Estate of Jim Garrison v. Warner Bros., Inc., 1996 WL 407849, at *2 (C.D. Cal.
26 June 25, 2006) (Plaintiffs’ allegations “which constitute the classic hallmark of antitrust class 27 actions under Rule 23 . . . are more than sufficient to satisfy the commonality requirement”); Flat
28 Glass, 191 F.R.D. at 479 (“[g]iven plaintiffs’ allegation of a § 1 conspiracy, the existence, scope and efficacy of the alleged conspiracy are certainly questions that are common to all class members.”) Similar common questions have been found to satisfy the commonality requirement in other antitrust class actions in the Northern District of California. In re Dynamic Random Access Memory (DRAM) Antitrust Litig., Case No. M 02-1486 PJH, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 39841, at *29 (N.D. Cal. June 5, 2006) (“the very nature of a conspiracy antitrust action compels a finding that common questions of law and fact exist.”); Rubber Chemicals, 232 F.R.D. at 351 (same); LCD, 267 F.R.D. at 300 (same).

3. The Claims of the Representative Party are Typical of the Claims of the Class

The third requirement for maintaining a class action under Rule 23(a) is that “the claims or defenses of the representative parties [be] typical of the claims or defenses of the class.” “[R]epresentative claims are ‘typical’ if they are reasonably co-extensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. “Generally, the class representatives ‘must be part of the class and possess the same interest and suffer the same injury as the class members.’” LCD, 267 F.R.D. at 300 (citing Falcon, 457 U.S. at 156).

The overarching scheme is the linchpin of plaintiffs’ . . . complaint, regardless of the product purchased, the market involved or the price ultimately paid. Furthermore, the various products purchased and the different amount of damage sustained by individual plaintiffs do not negate a finding of typicality, provided the cause of those injuries arises from a common wrong.

Flat Glass, 191 F.R.D. at 480.

Courts have generally found the typicality requirement to be satisfied in horizontal price-fixing cases. As explained in In re Chlorine & Caustic Soda Antitrust Litig.:

Plaintiffs seek to recover treble damages from defendants measured by the alleged overcharge resulting from defendants’ conspiracy to fix prices. In order to prevail on the merits in this case the plaintiffs will have to prove the same major elements that the absent members of the class would have to prove. Those elements are a conspiracy, its effectuation and resulting damages. As such, the claims of the plaintiffs are not antagonistic to and are typical of the claims of the other putative class members.

116 F.R.D. 622, 626 (E.D. Pa. 1987); see also Rubber Chemicals, 232 F.R.D. at 351; Citric Acid, 1996 WL 655791, at *3 (“The alleged underlying course of conduct in this case is defendants’

1 conspiracy to fix the price of citric acid and to allocate customers among themselves The 2 legal theory that plaintiffs rely on is antitrust liability. Because plaintiffs and all class members
 3 share these claims and this theory, the representatives' claims are typical of all.”).

4 Plaintiffs here allege a conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain and stabilize the price of CRTs
 5 and/or CRTs contained in CRT Finished Products sold in the United States. Class members'
 6 claims are based on the same legal theories. Plaintiffs would have to prove the same elements that 7 absent members would have to prove: the existence, scope, and efficacy of the conspiracy. The 8 typicality requirement of Rule 23(a)(3) is plainly satisfied.

9 4. The Representative Plaintiffs Will Fairly and Adequately Protect the 10 Interests of the Class

11 The fourth requirement of Rule 23 mandates that the representative plaintiffs fairly and 12 adequately represent the class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). The adequacy requirement consists of two 13 separate inquiries. First, the representative plaintiff must not possess interests which are 14 antagonistic to the interests of the class. Second, plaintiff must be represented by counsel of 15 sufficient diligence and competence to fully litigate the claim. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020; Lerwill
 16 v. Inflight Motion Pictures, Inc., 582 F.2d 507, 512 (9th Cir. 1978).

17 The representative plaintiffs here meet both aspects of the adequacy test. There are no 18 actual or potential conflicts of interest between the representative plaintiffs and the members of the 19 class. Plaintiffs, as well as each member of the class, were overcharged for CRTs and/or CRT
 20 Finished Products and have a mutual interest in establishing liability and recovering damages. The 21 basis of the claims against Defendants is a price-fixing conspiracy that artificially raised the prices
 22 charged to every Class member, each of whom directly purchased CRTs and/or CRT Finished 23 Products from one or more of the Defendants during the Class Period. Defendants, therefore,
 24 allegedly injured plaintiffs and the Class members in the same manner. Plaintiffs seek relief 25 substantially identical to that sought by every other Class member. Accordingly, the interests of 26 the representative plaintiffs and the putative class members in recovering the overcharges are the 27 same.
 28

Moreover, Plaintiffs have retained highly capable and well-recognized counsel with extensive experience in antitrust cases. Plaintiffs' counsel, Saveri & Saveri, Inc., was appointed by the Court as Interim Lead Counsel on May 9, 2010. It has undertaken the responsibilities assigned to it by the Court and has directed the efforts of other Plaintiffs' counsel in vigorously prosecuting this action. Plaintiffs' counsel has successfully prosecuted numerous antitrust class actions on behalf of injured purchasers throughout the United States. Plaintiffs' counsel is capable of, and committed to, prosecuting this action vigorously on behalf of the Class. Plaintiffs' counsel's prosecution of this case, and, indeed, the Settlement, amply demonstrate their diligence and competence. Therefore, the named plaintiffs satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(a)(4).

C. The Proposed Class Satisfies The Requirements Of Rule 23(B)(3)

Once it is determined that the proposed class satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(a), a class must be certified under Rule 23(b)(3) if "the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy." "Judicial economy and fairness are the focus of the predominance and superiority requirements." Oregon Laborers-Employers, 188 F.R.D. at 375. Plaintiffs' claims meet these requirements.

1. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate Over Individual Questions

As the United States Supreme Court has noted, predominance is a test that is "readily met" in antitrust cases. Amchem Prods., 521 U.S. at 625; see also In Re Warfarin Sodium Antitrust Litig., 391 F.3d 516, 528 (3d Cir. 2004). The overwhelming weight of authority holds that in horizontal price-fixing cases, the predominance requirement is readily satisfied. LCD, 267 F.R.D. at 310 ("Courts have frequently found that whether a price-fixing conspiracy exists is a common question that predominates over other issues because proof of an alleged conspiracy will focus on defendants' conduct and not on the conduct of individual class members.")

In determining whether common questions predominate in a price fixing case, "the focus of this court should be principally on issues of liability." In re Sugar Industry, 1976 WL 1374 at *22;

1 Citric Acid, 1996 WL 655791 at *6; see also Local Joint Executive Board of Culinary/Bartender
 2 Trust Fund v. Las Vegas, 244 F.3d 1152, 1163 (9th Cir. 2001); Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1022
 3 (“common nucleus of facts and potential legal remedies dominates this litigation”).

4 Common questions need only predominate; they do not need to be dispositive of the 5 litigation as a whole. In re Lorazepam & Clorazepate Antitrust Litig., 202 F.R.D. 12, 29 (D.D.C.
 6 2001); In re Cardizem CD Antitrust Litig., 200 F.R.D. 326, 339 (E.D. Mich. 2001); In re Potash
 7 Antitrust Litig., 159 F.R.D. 682, 693 (D. Minn. 1995). The predominance standard is met “unless 8 it is clear that individual issues will overwhelm the common questions and render the class action
 9 valueless.” In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litig., 169 F.R.D. 493, 517 (S.D.N.Y. 1996).

10 In section 1 Sherman Act class cases, the existence of a conspiracy has been recognized as 11 the overriding issue common to all plaintiffs. As the court acknowledged in Rubber Chemicals:
 12 “the great weight of authority suggests that the dominant issues in cases like this are whether the 13 charged conspiracy existed and whether price-fixing occurred.” 232 F.R.D. at 353 (quoting Citric
 14 Acid, 1006 U.S. Dist. Lexis 16409, at *21); see also In re Cement and Concrete Antitrust Litig., 15 1979 WL 1595, at *2 (D. Ariz. March 9, 1979) (“the asserted nationwide price fixing conspiracy 16 presents questions of law and fact common to the class members which predominate over any 17 questions affecting only individual members”); In re Sugar Industry, 1976 WL 1374, at *23 (“It is 18 the allegedly unlawful horizontal price-fixing arrangement among defendants that, in its broad 19 outlines, comprises the predominating, unifying common interest as to these purported plaintiff
 20 representatives and all potential class members”); Mularkey v. Holsum Bakery, Inc., 120 F.R.D.
 21 118, 122 (D. Ariz. 1988). Courts in this district and elsewhere have held that this issue alone is 22 sufficient to satisfy the Rule 23(b)(3) predominance requirement. See, e.g., Rubber Chemicals, 232
 23 F.R.D. at 353; Citric Acid, 1996 WL 655791, at *8.

24 Furthermore, courts have uniformly found predominant common questions of law or fact
 25 with respect to the existence, scope, and effect of the alleged conspiracy. See Citric Acid, 1996
 26 WL 655791, at *6 (common questions include whether there was a conspiracy, whether prices 27 were fixed pursuant to the conspiracy, and whether the prices plaintiffs’ paid were higher than they 28 should have been); Estate of Jim Garrison, 1996 WL 407849, at *3 (“Antitrust price fixing

1 conspiracy cases by their nature deal with common legal and factual questions of the existence,
 2 scope and effect of the alleged conspiracy.” (citation omitted)); In re NASDAQ Market-Makers
 3 Antitrust Litig., 169 F.R.D. at 518.

4 In the current litigation, common issues relating to the existence of the CRT conspiracy and 5 Defendants’ acts in furtherance of the conspiracy predominate over any questions arguably
 6 affecting only individual Class members because they are the central issue in the case and proof is 7 identical for every member of the Class. If separate actions were to be filed by each Class member 8 in the instant case, each would have to establish the existence of the same conspiracy and would 9 depend on identical evidence, and each would prove damages using identical “textbook” economic 10 models. The evidence needed to prove how the Defendants implemented and enforced their 11 conspiracy to set the prices of CRTs at supra-competitive levels will be common for all class
 12 members. These issues pose predominant common questions of law and fact.

13 Finally, as explained above, the Court need not concern itself with questions of the 14 manageability of a trial because the Settlement disposes of the need for a trial with regard to 15 Settling Defendants, along with any “thorny issues” that might arise. See Amchem, 521 U.S. at 16 620; Carnegie, 376 F. 3d at 660.

17 2. A Class Action Is Superior to Other Available Methods for the Fair and 18 Efficient Adjudication of this Case.

19 Rule 23(b)(3) provides that certification of a case is appropriate if class treatment “is 20 superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.” It
 21 sets forth four factors to be considered: (1) the interest of members of the class in individually
 22 controlling the prosecution of separate actions; (2) the extent and nature of any litigation 23 concerning the controversy already commenced by members of the class; (3) the desirability of 24 concentrating the litigation of the claims in a particular forum; and (4) the difficulties likely to be 25 encountered in the management of a class action. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). Prosecuting this action 26 as a class action is clearly superior to other methods of adjudicating this matter.

27 The alternative to a class action – many duplicative individual actions – would be 28 inefficient and unfair. “Numerous individual actions would be expensive and time-consuming and would create the danger of conflicting decisions as to persons similarly situated.” Lerwill, 582 F.2d at 512. Further, it would deprive many class members of any practical means of redress. Because prosecution of an antitrust conspiracy case against economically powerful defendants is difficult and expensive, class members with all but the largest claims would likely choose not to pursue their claims. See Local Joint Executive Board of Culinary/Bartender Trust Fund, 244 F.3d at 1163. Most class members would be effectively foreclosed from pursuing their claims absent class certification. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1023 (“many claims [that] could not be successfully asserted individually . . . would not only unnecessarily burden the judiciary, but would prove uneconomic for potential plaintiffs”). The proposed class satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(b)(3).

D. The Court Should Appoint the Plaintiffs’ Interim Lead Counsel as Counsel for the Settlement Class.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(1)(B) states that “[a]n order that certifies a class action . . . must appoint class counsel under Rule 23(g).” Rule 23(g)(1)(A) states that “[i]n appointing class counsel, the court (i) must consider: [1] the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action; [2] counsel’s experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action; [3] counsel’s knowledge of the applicable law; and [4] the resources counsel will commit to representing the class.”

The law firm of Saveri & Saveri, Inc. seeks to be appointed as Counsel for the Class. The firm is willing and able to vigorously prosecute this action and to devote all necessary resources to obtain the best possible result. The work done to date supports the conclusion that they should be appointed as Class Counsel for purposes of the Settlements. See, e.g., Harrington v. City of Albuquerque, 222 F.R.D. 505, 520 (D.N.M. 2004). The firm meets the criteria of Rule 23(g)(1)(C)(i). Cf. Farley v. Baird, Patrick & Co., Inc. 1992 WL 321632, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (“[c]lass counsel’s competency is presumed absent specific proof to the contrary by defendants”).

VI. PROPOSED PLAN OF NOTICE

Rule 23(e)(1) states that, “[t]he court must direct notice in a reasonable manner to all class members who would be bound by” a proposed settlement, voluntary dismissal, or compromise.

Class members are entitled to the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances” of any proposed settlement before it is finally approved by the Court. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B).

The notice must state in plain, easily understood language:

- the nature of the action,
- the definition of the class certified,
- the class claims, issues, or defenses,
- that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires,
- that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion, stating when and how members may elect to be excluded, and
- the binding effect of a class judgment on class members under Rule 23(c)(3).

Id.

Notice to the class must be “the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” Amchem Prods., 521 U.S. at 617. Plaintiff proposes that a direct Long Form Notice in the form attached as Exhibit 2 to the Saveri Decl. (“Notice”) be given by mail or email to each Class Member who may, by reasonable efforts, be identified. Plaintiffs propose to use the electronic lists of class members with their mail and e-mail addresses that Defendants produced after the Preliminary Approval of the Chunghwa Picture Tubes and Philips’ settlements.

In addition, Plaintiff proposes that a Summary Notice in the form attached as Exhibit 3 to the Saveri Decl. be published in the national edition of the Wall Street Journal, and that both notices, along with the settlement agreement, be posted on a website accessible to class members. Publication notice is an acceptable method of providing notice where the identity of specific class members is not reasonably available. See Tableware, 484 F. Supp. 2d at 1080 (citing Manual § 21.311).

Such notice plans are commonly used in class actions like this one and constitute valid, due and sufficient notice to class members, and constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances. See Moore’s Federal Practice § 23.63[8][a], § 23.63[8][b] (3d ed. 2003).

The notice program is the same as the one approved by the Court on May 3, 2012 with Chunghwa and Philips. Saveri Decl. ¶ 24.

The content of the proposed notices complies with the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B). The form of notice is “adequate if it may be understood by the average class member.” Newberg § 11.53. The Notice clearly and concisely explains the nature of the action and the terms of the 1 Settlement. It provides a clear description of who is a member of the class and the binding effects

 2 of class membership. It explains how to exclude oneself from the class, how to object to the 3 Settlement, how to obtain copies of papers filed in the case and how to contact Class counsel. It
 4 explains that Plaintiffs are deferring their request for attorneys' fees but that any future request will 5 not exceed one-third as stipulated in the Settlement. Saveri Decl., Ex. 1 ¶ 23.

6 The Summary Notice also identifies class members and explains the basic terms of the 7 Settlement and the consequences of class membership. It also explains how to obtain more 8 information about the Settlement. The Summary Notice will be published after the Notice is 9 mailed and e-mailed to class members.

10 The notice program will consist of both mailed and published notice, as well as posting of 11 the Notice on the Internet. This notice program will be similar to that employed by other direct 12 purchaser antitrust cases, and fulfills all the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and 13 due process. See, e.g., Torrisi v. Tucson Elec. Power Co., 8 F.3d 1370, 1374–75 (9th Cir. 1993); In 14 re AOL Time Warner ERISA Litig., 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 70474, at *30-31 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 27, 15 2006). Accordingly, the Court should preliminarily approve both.

16 VII. PROPOSED PLAN OF ALLOCATION

17 Plaintiffs propose that distribution of settlement fund be deferred until the termination of 18 the case, when there might be additional settlement funds from other settling defendants to 19 distribute, and because piecemeal distribution of each settlement would be expensive, time-
 20 consuming, and likely to cause confusion to class members. Deferring allocation of settlement
 21 funds is a common practice in cases where claims against other defendants remain. See Manual §
 22 21.651. This is also the same procedure the Court approved in connection with the Philips and 23 Chunghwa settlements. Saveri Decl. ¶ 25.

24 Although plaintiffs propose deferring the distribution of funds until a later date, plaintiffs 25 propose informing the class that any distribution will be made on a pro rata basis. A plan of 26 allocation of class settlement funds is subject to the “fair, reasonable and adequate” standard that 27 applies to approval of class settlements. In re Citric Acid Antitrust Litig., 145 F. Supp. 2d 1152, 28 1154 (N.D. Cal. 2001). A plan of allocation that compensates class members based on the type and

1 extent of their injuries is generally considered reasonable. Here the proposed distribution will be 2 on a pro rata basis, with no class member being favored over others. This type of distribution has 3 frequently been determined to be fair, adequate, and reasonable. See DRAM, No. M-02-1486 PJH,
 4 Doc No. 2093, at 2 (Oct. 27, 2010) (Order Approving Pro Rata Distribution); In re Vitamins
 5 Antitrust Litig., 2000 WL 1737867 at *6 (D.D.C. Mar. 31, 2000) (“Settlement distributions, such as
 6 this one, that apportion funds according to the relative amount of damages suffered by class
 7 members, have repeatedly been deemed fair and reasonable.”); In re Lloyds’ Am. Trust Fund
 8 Litig., 2002 WL 31663577 at *19 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 26, 2002) (“pro rata allocations provided in the 9 Stipulation are not only reasonable and rational, but appear to be the fairest method of allocating 10 the settlement benefits.”).

11 Each class member’s pro rata share of the Settlement Fund is determined by computing
 12 each valid claimant’s total CRT purchases divided by the total valid CRT purchases claimed. This 13 percentage is multiplied against the Net Settlement Fund (total settlements minus all costs, 14 attorneys’ fees, and expenses) to determine each claimants pro rata share of the Settlement Fund.
 15 To determine each class member’s CRT purchases, CRT tubes (CPTs and CDTs) are calculated at 16 full value while CRT televisions are valued at 50% and computer monitors are valued at 75%.

17 In summary, class members will submit their purchase information for both CRT tubes and 18 finished products - televisions and monitors containing CRTs. All class members will share in the 19 settlement funds on a pro rata basis determined by the CRT value of the product they purchased - 20 tubes 100%, monitors 75% and televisions 50%.

21 VIII. THE COURT SHOULD SET A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING SCHEDULE

22 The last step in the settlement approval process is the final approval hearing, at which the 23 Court may hear all evidence and argument necessary to evaluate the proposed settlements. At that 24 hearing, proponents of the settlements may explain and describe their terms and conditions and 25 offer argument in support of settlement approval. Members of the settlement class, or their 26 counsel, may be heard in support of or in opposition to the settlement. Plaintiffs propose the 27 following schedule for final approval of the settlement. If preliminary approval is granted, the 28 proposed settlement class members will be notified of the terms of the Settlement and informed of their rights in connection therewith, including their right to appear and be heard at the final approval hearing. The following is a proposed schedule:

Date	Event
14 Days ¹	Mailed notice sent to class members and publication of website;
18 Days	Summary notice published in (Wall Street Journal);
59 Days	Deadlines re opting out of the Panasonic class, objecting to the Settlements;
73 Days	Deadline for filing list of any opt-outs with Court;
89 Days	Deadline for filing briefing in support of Settlement, and;
110 Days	Hearing on final approval of Settlement.

IX. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons set forth herein Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Court should enter an order granting the relief requested by this motion: (i) granting preliminary approval of the Settlement and the related plan of allocation; (ii) approving the manner and form of giving notice to Class members of the matters in this motion, and (iii) establishing a timetable for issuing such notice, filing objections and briefs, and conducting a hearing on final approval of the Settlement.

Dated: July 6, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,
